

Start of Class QUIZ #5:

- 1. Vicarious liability attaches:
 - a. to the corporation,
but not to the human supervisor.
 - b. if an agent acts within the scope of authority.
 - c. all of the above are true.
 - d. none of the above are true.

- 2. Fraud comes in many forms with materially different elements that the plaintiff must prove, for example:
 - a. tax evasion.
 - b. wire fraud
(but, excludes mail because not "transportation").
 - c. all of the above are true.
 - d. none of the above are true.

- 3. CERCLA is the:
 - a. anti-trust statute Microsoft violated.
 - b. statute that protects "consumer" privacy.
 - c. all of the above are true.
 - d. none of the above are true.

End of class QUIZ #5:

Short answer (less than 20 words):

- 1. Foolishly, being very cash conscious,
Kendra accepts Randy's proposal.
Other than the cities,
list three plaintiffs with standing to sue.

Start of Class QUIZ #5:

- 1. Vicarious liability attaches:
 - a. if an agent acts within the scope of authority.
 - b. to the corporation,
but not to the human supervisor.
 - c. all of the above are true.
 - d. none of the above are true.

- 2. Fraud comes in many forms with materially different elements that the plaintiff must prove, for example:
 - a. wire fraud
(but, excludes mail because not "transportation").
 - b. tax evasion.
 - c. all of the above are true.
 - d. none of the above are true.

- 3. CERCLA is the:
 - a. anti-trust statute Microsoft violated.
 - b. statute that protects "consumer" privacy.
 - c. all of the above are true.
 - d. none of the above are true.

End of class QUIZ #5:

Short answer (less than 20 words):

- 1. Foolishly, being very cash conscious,
Kendra accepts Randy's proposal.
Other than the cities,
list three plaintiffs with standing to sue.