

Topics from slides 2, 4-23, 33-40, 43, and 51

14th due process	life, liberty, and property actual knowledge	market failure agent	may aggregation	means
appellate court	natural person bounded rationality	negligence can	objective
capacity	penumbra
citizen	per se negligence civil	points of reference Commerce Clause	Police Power commercial free speech	political free speech common law	preemption
confidential	principal
consideration	privacy
consumer	privileged contract	profit maximization core	proximate causation cost minimization	reason to know criminal	reasonable expectations defense	reasonable person due process	reasonably foreseeable efficiency as ethics	receipt of notice Elements and Functions of Capitalism	res ipsa loquitur emanations	risk can not be zero employee	security law fraud ends	separation of powers Equal Protection Clause	should express	spillovers
factual causation	standing to sue federalism	strict liability foreseen	strict liability fraud	subjective good faith	substance over form implied	torts
independent contractor	trial court judicial review	Ultramares knowing	veil of ignorance law reacts	vicarious liability legal person	voluntary